

Tucson/Pima County Historic Preservation Awards

"Pasquale House" circa 1880

Award Date: 2016

Site manufactured 7000 adobes, rebuilt collapsed walls, applied lime plaster and earthen plaster, installed new structural roof system, new mechanical electric plumbing systems, historically accurate windows.

"The Patio Building" at Tucson Medical Center

Award Date: 2015

Restoration of historic plaster. Replacement/restoration of wood elements, historic windows and doors. Rebuilt copper dome.

"The C.O. Brown House"

Award Date: 2015

Adobe repair/replacement. Restoration of historic plaster, wood elements.

"The Erickson House" at Tucson Medical Center

Award Date: 2014

Restoration of historic plaster, wood element repair of beams and viga tails, brickwork. Rebuilt ornate shutters and doors.

"614 S Meyer" circa 1941

Award Date: 2013

Returned building to its historic appearance. Removed non-historic roof structure, rebuilt walls. Installed new roof structure.

"Roy Place Commercial Building" circa 1928

Award Date: 2011

Selective demolition, restoration of structural concrete columns, structural and finish carpentry, brick, and historic tile work. Replication of all pre-cast concrete.

"McFadden Residence" circa 1941

Award Date: 2011

Historic Joesler design. Restored millwork, historic tile work, windows and doors.

"Aqua Caliente Park

Award Date: 2004

Brick restoration, concrete work, structural carpentry, floor polishing, window and door restoration and cabinet refinishing.

"Joesler Studio" circa 1921

Award Date: 1999

Adobe preservation, replacement of broken pole beams, historic window and door restoration.

"The Bricks" Apartments circa 1927

Award Date: 1999

The complete presentation/restoration of an 11-unit apartment complex in the Iron Horse Historic District. Repointed and repaired brick and stonework, preserved windows, millwork of exterior wood elements. New electrical, HVAC, and plumbing. Preserved original wood floors.

"451 S Convent" circa 1880

Award Date: 1996

Restoration of adobe and lime plaster, installed historically accurate windows and doors. All new systems.