

Arizona State Historic Preservation Awards

“Pasquale House” circa 1880

Award Date: 2016

Site manufactured 7000 adobes, rebuilt collapsed walls, applied lime plaster and earthen plaster, installed new structural roof system, new mechanical electric plumbing systems, historically accurate windows.

“Camp Naco” circa 1919

Award Date: 2014

Supervised the abatement of 24,000 sf of asbestos roof tiles. Rebuilt roof system of 20,000 sf of roll roofing, repaired adobe walls and lime plaster.

“Matus Meza House” circa 1920

Award Date: 2013

Installed site manufactured adobes, windows and door preservation, lime plaster. Painted building.

“Canoa Ranch Regional Park” circa 1880-1960

Award date: 2011

Site manufactured 8000 adobes, installed 50,000 sf of lime plaster, installed rebuilt historic windows and doors, rebuilt structural roof system, concrete floor overlay work on all phases.

“La Pilita Patio and El Tiradito Shrine”

Award Date: 2011

Historic lime and earthen plaster, historic window repair, repaired and repainted historic signage.

“The Bricks” Apartments circa 1928

Award Date: 1999

The complete presentation/restoration of an 11-unit apartment complex in the Iron Horse Historic District. Repointed and repaired brick and stone work, preserved windows, millwork of exterior wood elements. New electrical, HVAC, and plumbing. Preserved original wood floors.

“Palido House” circa 1906

Award Date: 1998

Rebuilt collapsed brick walls and roof system. New electric, plumbing and HVAC system. New historically accurate metal roof, windows and roof.

“Casa Blanca” circa 1889

Award Date: 1998

The only 2-story residential adobe building remaining in Tucson. Repaired adobe wall and lime plaster, preserved historic windows and doors. Installed wood flooring to match original. Replacement of electrical, HVAC and plumbing systems.